

Details of establishment of Whistle Blower Policy

ICICI Prudential Life Insurance Company Limited (herein referred as “the Company”) is committed to adopting the highest business, governance, ethical and legal standards. To aid in achieving this objective, the Company has formulated several policies and guidelines that assist the employees in maintaining these high standards. The Company also employs several modes of checks and balances to ensure adherence to its policies

The purpose of the Whistle Blower Policy is to encourage employees to report matters without the risk of subsequent victimisation, discrimination or disadvantage. The Policy applies to all employees working for the Company, including directors of the Company.

The Whistle Blowing or reporting mechanism set out in the Policy, invites all employees to act responsibly to uphold the reputation of the Company. The Policy aims to provide a mechanism to ensure that concerns are properly raised, appropriately investigated and addressed. The Company recognises this mechanism as an important enabling factor in administering good governance practices.

The Whistle Blower Policy also complies with the vigil mechanism as envisaged by the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules framed thereunder.

Nothing in this Policy is intended to limit any protections provided to Whistle Blowers by any applicable laws or regulations or to place any limits on a Whistle Blower’s ability to communicate with government, administrative, or law enforcement authorities, as provided for by law

Whistle Blowing ‘Concern’ or ‘Complaint’

The Whistle Blower Policy encourages employees to report breach of any law, statute or regulation by the Company, issues related to accounting policies and procedures adopted for any area or item, Acts resulting in financial loss or loss of reputation, Misuse of office, suspected/actual fraud and criminal offences, Non-compliance to Anti-bribery & anti-corruption policy, Leak of any UPSI pursuant to SEBI Regulations or any such information prescribed pursuant to any regulations/laws, as amended from time to time

The complainant (i.e. employee or director making the complaint) is encouraged to provide the following information in his/her complaint: name, contact details, employee number, and department. Other than complaints relating to concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matter, the Company shall not entertain any complaint where all such information is not provided, including anonymous/pseudonymous complaints. In respect of such anonymous/pseudonymous complaints (i.e. other than complaints relating to concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters) no further action will be required to be taken and the case will be closed, without intimation to the complainant. The Head Internal Audit may direct, in his/her discretion, that anonymous/pseudonymous complaints be considered under the Policy, even when such complaints do not relate to concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Administration of Policy:

The Head-Internal Audit of the Company is the Nodal Officer who is responsible to receive, investigate and report all Whistle Blower complaints to the Audit Committee on a quarterly basis (without editing them).

Inquiry into the concerns received under this policy shall normally be completed within 90 days of receipt of the concern by Head-IAD. Concerns requiring additional time for inquiry shall be intimated to the Audit Committee at the time of reporting the status of inquiry and actions on a quarterly basis

Guidelines to the Whistle Blower

- a) Whistle blowers are required to provide initial information relating to a reasonable belief that an unethical activity has occurred.
- b) Whistle Blowers have a responsibility to be candid with the Investigators.

Confidentiality and Anonymity

In relation to complaints relating to concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, an employee may choose to send communication under this Policy on an anonymous basis. However, in relation to such complaints, employees are encouraged to disclose their identities while raising concerns under this Policy. This will assist in obtaining additional details or evidence as may be required during the inquiry

Strict confidentiality shall be maintained with regard to the identity of the complainant, both during and post investigation. The identity of the complainant shall not be released unless required by law.

Policy Communication

Head - Internal Audit sends email communicating the policy periodically to the employees and the Policy has been displayed on the Company intranet for better understanding of employees
